Experimental Machine Stitch

Level 1 Certificate

© Iris Bell

New Class: Mistletoe
June 3-6, 2022
4 days in studio

Experimental Machine Stitch

This course will be based on acquiring a thorough knowledge of your sewing machine with an imaginative approach to the creation of contemporary, innovative, samples. A basic machine that will do zigzag stitches is required. If your machine has greater capabilities and is equipped with computerized memory, etc. it also will be just fine for this course. The course will be focusing on the large variety of effects that can be achieved through imagination, rather than through the mechanical capabilities of machines. Comprehensive notes will be provided to students.

Following are some of the skills you will learn:

- Painting fabrics for embroidery
- Sampling and experimentation with automatic stitches, zigzag stitches and free machine embroidery
- Creation of transparent effects by layering, fusing, appliqué (bonding)
- Machine lace

A Collection of Samples and Notes

This is a Gail Harker Center for Creative Arts Certificate course. Time after the class will be allowed for each student to complete the required collection of samples and notes started in class. You will create a collection of work showing a variety of inspirational stitch samples and classroom notes which will provide a source of inspiration from which to work for years to come.

Course Supplies:

There will be a package of fabric and material supplied at the class, in addition to a binder of class notes. You will also receive a supply list of other materials you will need for the course.
